

Bianu umuaka kwenu

Come and Wake up into Daylight

Based on a Traditional from Nigeria
 Adaption, arrangement and English words: Lorenz Maierhofer

© by Helbling, Rum/Innsbruck

A Emotionally ♩ = ca. 86 $\text{♩} = \text{♩} \text{♩} \text{♩}$

S A

mf [whispering] [whispering]

Kwe - nu (stamp) u - wa. Kwe - nu (stamp) u - wa.

T B

mf (stamp) (stamp)

B ① ②

Solo

mf (s) Bia - nu u-mu-a-ka kwe-nu. Come and wake up in-to day-light. Bia - nu u-mu-a-ka kwe-nu. Come and wake up in-to day-light. Bia - nu u-mu-a-ka kwe-nu. Come and wake up in-to day-light.

S A

p [whispering] [whispering]

Kwe - nu (stamp) u-wa. Kwe - nu (stamp) u-wa. Kwe - nu

T B

p (stamp) (stamp)

(s) kwe-nu, day-light, (a) kwe-nu, (a) kwe-nu, (a) kwe-nu! (a) kwe-nu, (a) kwe-nu, (a) kwe-nu!

Speaker – freely to the choral background:
 “Come and wake up into sunshine, to your winds and raindrops, to your mother and father, to your brother and sister.”

[whispering] [whispering] mf

(stamp) u-wa. Kwe - nu (stamp) u-wa. Kwe - nu (stamp) u-wa.

(stamp) (stamp) (stamp)